FEDERAL TAXATION. Coronet, 1948. 10 min.,
sd., b&w, 16mm.

Summary: Explains that all citizens have to pay federal taxes, according to their ability to pay, in order to defray the expense of war, national defense, education, conservation of natural resources, power projects, and operation of government departments. The picture is presented from the point of view of a wholesome American family of the "blue-collar" class.
